

"Everything Spice" Baked Salmon Rice Bowl with Avocado & Tomatoes

30 minutes | 2 servings

Ingredients

- ½ avocado
- 1 tbsp capers
- ½ small bunch fresh dill
- 1 pint grape tomatoes
- ½ cup jasmine rice
- 1 lemon
- ¾ lb salmon fillet
- black pepper
- Dijon mustard
- extra virgin olive oil
- garlic powder
- onion powder
- poppy seeds
- salt
- sesame seeds

Cookware

- baking sheet pan
- chef's knife
- citrus juicer (optional)
- colander
- cutting board
- grater (optional)
- measuring cups
- measuring spoons
- mixing bowls
- oven mitts
- small saucepan
- stirring spoon

Instructions

- 1 Preheat oven to 450°F.
- 2 Using a strainer or colander, rinse the rice under cold, running water, then drain and transfer to a small saucepan. Add water and bring the mixture to a boil over high heat.
½ cup jasmine rice
1 cup water
- 3 Meanwhile, wash and dry the fresh produce.
1 pint grape tomatoes
1 lemon
½ small bunch fresh dill
½ avocado
- 4 Once the liquid comes to a boil, stir the mixture, cover the saucepan, and reduce heat to low. Cook rice until liquid is fully absorbed, 15-18 minutes. Once done, remove rice from the heat and let it stand, still covered, for 5 minutes.
- 5 While the rice is cooking, transfer tomatoes to a baking sheet pan. Drizzle with oil and season with salt. Stir to coat and spread out in an even layer.
2 tsp extra virgin olive oil
¼ tsp salt
- 6 Place baking sheet in the oven (it doesn't have to be fully heated) and roast, stirring halfway through, until tomatoes are just beginning to burst, about 10 minutes.

- 7 Meanwhile, place seeds and spices in a small bowl; stir to combine the "everything spice" mixture.
- 2 tsp sesame seeds*
 - 1 tsp poppy seeds*
 - ¼ tsp garlic powder*
 - ¼ tsp onion powder*
 - ¼ tsp black pepper*
- 8 Pat the salmon dry with paper towels, season with salt, and place, skin-side down, on a plate. Spread the top-side with Dijon, then sprinkle evenly with the spice mixture, pressing gently to adhere. (Reserve bowl for later use.)
- ¾ lb salmon fillet*
 - ¼ tsp salt*
 - 1 tbsp Dijon mustard*
- 9 When the tomatoes are starting to burst, remove from the oven. Add salmon to the baking sheet, nestling the fillets into the tomatoes.
- 10 Return baking sheet to the oven and continue to roast until the tomatoes are browned and salmon is cooked through, 7-8 minutes more. Remove from oven.
- 11 Meanwhile, zest and juice lemon into the reserved bowl.
- 12 Shave dill leaves off the stems; discard stems and roughly chop the leaves. Add to the bowl with the lemon along with oil, salt, and pepper. Stir to combine the dressing and set aside.
- 1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil*
 - ⅛ tsp salt*
 - ⅛ tsp black pepper*
- 13 Halve and pit avocado. Halve lengthwise and slice thinly while still in the skin, then scoop out with a spoon.
- 14 To serve, divide rice between bowls. Top with salmon, roasted tomatoes, avocado, and capers, then drizzle with dressing. Enjoy!
- 1 tbsp capers*
